SCHOOL DIRECT

Working in partnership with a number of local schools, Watford Grammar School for Boys offers the School Direct route into teacher training.

Ever thought about Teaching?

Are you:

Passionate about your subject?

Seeking a rewarding career?

Qualified to degree level? (Degree needs to be in a relevant subject, 2:1 or above)

Looking for a new challenge?

Watford Girls | Watford Boys | Queen Elizabeth Barnet
Yavneh College | Rickmansworth School Dame Alice Owen's School | Hertswood Academy
Chancellor's School | Mount Grace School | The Park | Onslow St. Audrey

This group of schools is seeking to appoint well-qualified applicants to train as teachers through the School Direct (salaried and unsalaried (PGCE)) for the academic year 2020-21.

Places are offered in a range of subjects but we are particularly interested in:

Mathematics

Physics

Chemistry

Computer Science

Working in partnership with the University of Hertfordshire, the schools can offer a high quality and comprehensive training programme and have a proven track record in providing a stimulating and supportive environment for teacher training. Successful applicants will spend most of the week in school, with some time at the University of Hertfordshire in Hatfield.

Applicants are required to have a good degree in a relevant subject to the one they wish to teach. For the salaried route, 3 year career experience is preferred. Generous bursaries are available in shortage subjects.

Information can be found on the Department of Education website – please follow this link Click here.

The initial application can be made to Watford Girls as the Lead School, or to any of the consortium schools directly. The School direct place will be offered in one of the collaborating schools.

Application is made through UCAS from November 2019. Early expressions of interest can be made directly to school in the consortium. For information and an application form, please contact Catherine Netscher, Professional Mentor for School Direct - netscherc@watfordboys.org
